TUBEROUS ROOTED BEGONIAS

GIANT SINGLE TYPE-The flowers of this type are enormous, having four overlapping slightly ribbed petals. They come in the solid colors of white, yellow, pink, rose, salmon, orange, scarlet and dark red.

SINGLE FRILLED TYPE (Crispa)-Having four large petals beautifully ruffled or frilled, these being sometimes overlaid by another set of frilled petals. The colors are the same as in the Giant Single type above except that some of the flowers may have the color only on the edge, the center being cream or white.

CRESTED TYPE (Cristata)-A beautiful show type, the plants being covered with masses of flowers having frilled edges and a crested formation on each petal. These come also in the above 8 colors.

DOUBLE CAMELLIA TYPE-The most popular of all the types, having very large double flowers resembling a camellia or rose. In some of them the edges of the petals are plain, in others frilled. White, yellow, pink, rose, salmon, orange, scarlet, dark red, American Beauty, apricot, dark salmon, cardinal red, blush, crimson rose and flame orange.

DOUBLE PICOTEE-Of the same form as the Camellia type but in two tone color combinations with the contrasting color on the edge of the petals. Colors: Pink, rose, salmon, apricot and red.

DOUBLE ROSEBUD-Exquisite flowers resembling perfect rosebuds, with beautiful two-tone pastel shade colorings. Colors: white, rose, salmon and apricot.

CARNATION TYPE (FIMBRIATA)-The flowers are extremely double with each petal fringed like a carnation petal. Colors: Pink, salmon, blush and scarlet.

HANGING BASKET TYPE-This type, being of hanging habit, is suitable for porch boxes, hanging baskets, or pots on pedestals. The plants are literally covered with masses of lovely blooms. Colors: White, pink, rose, salmon and orange.
